In case the Petition is received by registered post/speed post/courier, the date on which the Petition is actually received at the office of the Commission shall be taken as the date of the presentation of the Petition.
- (6) The presentation and the receipt of the Petition shall be duly entered in the register maintained for the purpose by the office of the Commission. Such register shall be maintained in form and manner as may be prescribed by the Commission, showing serial no. of Petition, date of its receipt, names and address of the parties, brief subject matter of the Petition, claim/relief sought, interim relief, if any, and date of disposal with final result thereof.
- (7) The Receiving Officer may refuse to register any Petition which is not in conformity with the provisions of the Act or regulation or is otherwise defective or which is presented otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations or directions of the Commission. However no petition shall be refused for defect in the pleading or its presentation without giving an opportunity to the person filing the Petition to rectify the defect within the time subject to further extension as directed by Secretary. On failure to remove objections within time allowed, the Petition shall stand dismissed.
- (8) A party aggrieved by any order of the Receiving Officer in regard to the presentation of the Petition may request the matter to be placed before the Chairman of the Commission for appropriate orders.

- (9) The Chairman or any Member as the Chairman may designate for the purpose, shall be entitled to call for the Petition presented by the party and give such directions regarding the presentation and acceptance of the Petition as he considers appropriate.
- (10) If on scrutiny, the Petition is not refused or any order of refusal is rectified by the Chairman or a Member of the Commission designated for the purpose, the Petition shall be duly registered and given a number in the manner to be specified by the Commission.
- (11) As soon as the Petition and all necessary documents are lodged and the defects and objections, if any, are removed, and the Petition has been scrutinized and numbered, the Petition shall be put up before the Commission for preliminary hearing and admission.
- (12) The Commission may admit the Petition for hearing without requiring the attendance of the party. Provided that the Commission shall not pass an order refusing admission without giving the party concerned an opportunity of being heard. The Commission may, if it considers appropriate, issue notice to such person or persons as it may desire to hear the Petition for admission.
- (13) If the Commission admits the Petition, it may give such orders and directions, as may be deemed necessary, for –
  - (a) service of notices to the respondent(s) and other affected or interested parties;
  - (b) the filing of reply and rejoinder in opposition or in support of the Petition in such form as the Commission may direct and
  - (c) the Petition to be placed for hearing before the Commission or a Bench, as the case may be.

17. Service of notices and processes issued by the Commission:

- (1) Any notice or process to be issued by the Commission may be served by any one or more of the following modes as may be directed by the Commission:
  - (a) service by any of the party to the proceedings;
  - (b) by hand delivery through a messenger;
  - (c) by speed post/courier/registered post with acknowledgement due;
  - (d) by publication in newspaper in cases where the Commission is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to serve the notices, process, etc on any person in the manner mentioned above;
  - (e) in any other mode of service as considered appropriate by the Commission.
- (2) The Commission shall be entitled to decide in each case the persons who shall bear the cost of such service/publication.
- (3) Every notice or process required to be served on or delivered to any person may be sent to the person or his agent empowered to accept service at the address furnished by him for service or at the place where the person or his agent ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.

- (4) In the event any matter is pending before the Commission and the person to be served has authorised an agent or representative to appear for or represent him or her in the matter, such agent or representative shall be deemed to be duly empowered to take service of the notices and processes on behalf of the party concerned in all matters and the service on such agent or representative shall be taken as due service on the person to be served. It shall be the responsibility of such agent or representative to duly inform the person whom he represents.
- (5) Where a notice is served by a party to the proceedings either in person or through any other mode an affidavit of service shall be filed by the party with the Commission giving details of the date and manner of service of notices and processes.
- (6) Where any Petition is required to be published in newspaper, it shall be done within such time as the Commission may direct and unless otherwise directed by the Commission such publication shall be made in one issue each of a daily newspaper in English language and in Hindi language having wide circulation in the area as decided by the Commission.
- (7) In default of compliance with the requirements of the Regulations or directions of the Commission as regards the service of notices, summons or processes or the advertisement and publication thereof, the Commission may either order to dismiss the Petition or give such other or further directions as it thinks fit.
- (8) No service or publication required to be done shall be deemed invalid by reason of any defect in the name or description of a person provided that the Commission is satisfied that such service is in other respects sufficient.
- (9) No proceedings shall be invalidated by reason of any defect or irregularity unless the Commission, on an objection taken, is of the opinion that substantial injustice has been caused by such defect or irregularity or there are otherwise sufficient reasons for doing so.

18. Filing of reply, opposition, objections, etc.

- (1) Each person to whom the notice of inquiry or the Petition is issued (hereinafter referred to as the 'respondent') who intends to oppose the Petition, shall file a reply and the documents relied upon within such period and in such number of copies as may be fixed by the Commission.
- (2) In the reply filed, the respondent shall specifically admit, deny or explain the facts stated in the notice of inquiry of the Petition and may also state such additional facts as he considers necessary for just decision of the case. The reply shall be signed and verified and supported by affidavit in the same manner as in the case of the Petition.
- (3) The respondent shall serve a copy of the reply along with the documents duly attested to be true copies on the Petitioner or his authorised representative and file proof of such service with the office of the Commission at the time of filing of the Reply.

- (4) Where the respondent states additional facts as may be necessary for the just decision of the case, the Commission may allow the Petitioner to file a rejoinder to the reply filed by the respondent(s). The procedure mentioned above for filing of the reply shall apply mutatis mutandis to the filing of the rejoinder.
- (5) Every person who intends to file objection or comments in regard to a matter pending before the Commission, pursuant to the publication issued for the purpose (other than the persons to whom notices, processes etc. have been issued calling for reply) shall deliver to an Officer designated by the Commission for the purpose the statement of the objection or comments with copies of the documents and evidence in support thereof within the time fixed for the purpose.
- (6) The Commission may permit or invite such person or persons including the associations, forums and bodies corporate holding the certificate of registration as it may consider appropriate to participate in the proceedings before the Commission if, the Commission considers that the participation of such person or persons will facilitate the proceedings and the decision in the matter.
- (7) Unless permitted and/or invited by the Commission, the person filing objection or comments shall not be entitled to participate in the proceedings to make oral submissions. However, the Commission shall be entitled to take into account the objections and comments filed after giving such opportunity to the parties to the proceedings as the Commission considers appropriate to deal with the objections or comments.

19. Hearing of the matter:

- (1). The Commission may determine the stages, manner, the place, the date and time of the hearing of the matter as the Commission considers appropriate for expeditious disposal.
- (2) The Commission may decide the matter on the pleadings of the parties or may call the parties to produce evidence by way of affidavit or lead oral evidence in the matter, as the Commission may consider appropriate.
  - (a) If the Commission directs evidence of a party to be led by way of an affidavit, the Commission may provide a reasonable opportunity to the other party to counter the same by way of affidavit.
  - (b) If the Commission directs evidence of a party to be led orally, the Commission may provide a reasonable opportunity to the other party to the proceedings to cross-examine the person adducing such oral evidence.
  - (c) The Commission may, if considered necessary or expedient, direct that the evidence of any of the parties be recorded by an Officer or person designated for the purpose by the Commission.

- (d) The Commission may direct the parties concerned to file written note of arguments and/or submissions in any proceeding before it.

20. Powers of the Commission to call for further information, evidence, etc.

- (1) The Commission may, at any time before passing orders on any matter, require any one or more of the parties or any other person whom the Commission considers appropriate, to produce such documentary or other evidence as the Commission may consider necessary for the purpose of enabling it to pass orders.
- (2) The Commission may direct the summoning of witnesses, discovery and production of any document or other material objects producible in evidence, requisition of any public record from any office, examination by an Officer or nominee of the Commission the books, accounts or other documents or information in the custody or control of any person which the Commission considers relevant to the matter.
- (3) The Commission or any Officer authorised in this behalf by the Commission, may enter any building or place where the Commission has reason to believe that any document relating to the subject matter of the inquiry may be found, and may seize any such document or take extracts or copies therefrom subject to the provisions of Section 100 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

The Commission may also exercise the aforesaid power if it has a reason to believe that any document relevant to the inquiry or the proceedings pending before it may be destroyed, mutilated, altered, falsified or secreted.

21. Reference of issues to others

- (1) At any stage of the proceedings, the Commission shall be entitled to refer such issue or issues in the matter as it considers appropriate to persons including, but not limited to, the Officers and Consultants of the Commission whom the Commission considers as qualified to give expert advice or opinion.
- (2) The Commission may nominate from time to time any person including, but not limited to, the officers and consultants to visit any place or places for inspection and report on the existence or status of the place or any facilities therein.
- (3) The Commission, if it thinks fit, may direct the parties to appear before the persons designated in sub-clause (1) or (2) above to present their respective views and/or make presentation on the issues or matters referred to.
- (4) The report or the opinion received from such person shall form a part of the record of the case and the parties shall be given the copies of the report or opinion given by the person designated by the Commission. The parties shall be entitled to file their version either in support or in opposition to the report or the opinion, as the case may be.

- (5) The Commission shall duly take into account the report or the opinion given by the person, the reply filed by the parties while deciding the matter and if considered necessary, the examination before the Commission of the person giving the report or the opinion.

Provided that the Commission shall not be bound by the report or the opinion given and shall be entitled to take such decision as it may consider to be appropriate.

- (6) The Commission may, if deems appropriate, refer matters to other agencies and bodies dealing with consumer disputes, restrictive and unfair trade practices and management and administration of the affairs of the licensees.

22. Procedure to be followed where any party does not appear:

- (1) If, on the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, if any party or his authorized agent or representative does not appear when the matter is called for hearing, the Commission may, in its discretion, either dismiss the petition for default when the petitioner or the person who moves the Commission for hearing is absent or proceed ex-parte to hear and decide the petition if the other party is absent.
- (2) Where a petition is dismissed in default or decided ex-parte, the person aggrieved may file an application within 30 days from the date of such dismissal or being proceeded ex-parte, as the case may be, for recall of the order passed, and the Commission may recall the order on such terms as it thinks fit, if the Commission is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the non-appearance of the person when the petition was called for hearing.

23. Orders of the Commission:

- (1) On conclusion of hearing of the matter before the Commission, Chairman and/or Member(s) of the Commission, who heard the matter, shall pronounce judgement and sign the orders.
- (2) In case, after hearing and while giving judgement or decision, the Chairman or any Member of the Commission dissents, he shall give his dissenting judgement with reasons. Majority view of the Commission shall be final in the judgement.
- (3) All orders and decisions issued or communicated by the Commission shall be certified by the signature of the Secretary or an Officer empowered in this behalf by the Chairman and bear the official seal of the Commission.
- (4) All final orders of the Commission shall be communicated to the parties to the proceeding under the signature of the Secretary or an officer empowered in this behalf by the Chairman.

24. Interim Orders:

- (1) The Commission may pass such interim orders in any proceeding as the Commission may consider appropriate, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case.

25. Non compliance of orders and directions:

- (1) In case any complaint is filed before the Commission by any person or if the Commission is satisfied that any person has contravened any provisions of the Act or rules or regulations made thereunder, or any direction issued by the Commission, the Commission may after giving such person an opportunity of being heard in the matter, by order in writing, direct that, without prejudice to any other penalty to which he may be liable under the Act, such person shall pay, by way of penalty, which shall not exceed one lakh rupees for each contravention and in case of a continuing failure with an additional penalty which may extend to six thousand rupees for every day during which the failure continues after contravention of the first such direction.

- (2) Any amount payable under sub-clause (1) above, if not paid, may be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

Chapter- III Arbitration of Disputes

26. Arbitration:

- (1) The arbitration of disputes, which under the Act are within the scope of the jurisdiction of the Commission may be commenced on an application made by any of the parties to the dispute.
- (2) The Commission shall issue notice to the concerned parties to show cause as to why the disputes between the parties should not be adjudicated and settled through arbitration.
- (3) The Commission may, after hearing the parties to whom notices have been issued and if satisfied that no reason or cause has been shown against the arbitration request, pass an order directing that the disputes be referred for adjudication and settlement through arbitration either by the Commission or by a person or persons to be nominated by the Commission.

27. Nomination of Arbitrators :

- (1) If the Commission decides to refer the matter to arbitration by a person or persons other than the Commission, the reference shall be:
- (a) to a sole arbitrator if the parties to the dispute agree on the name of the sole arbitrator; or
- (b) if the parties are unable to agree on the name of the arbitrator, to a sole arbitrator to be designated by the Commission or to three persons as the Commission may direct taking into account the nature of the dispute and the value involved and, if the decision is to refer to three arbitrators, one to be nominated by each of the parties to the dispute and the third by the Commission:

Provided that if any of the parties fails to nominate the arbitrator or if any arbitrator nominated by the parties or the Commission, fails or neglects to act or continue as arbitrator, the Commission shall be entitled to nominate any other person in his place.

- (2) The Commission shall not nominate a person as arbitrator to whom any of the parties to the arbitration has a reasonable objection on grounds of possible bias or similar such reasons and the Commission considers the apprehension to be justified.

28. Procedure for adjudication, settlement and passing of award :

- (1) In case the Commission acts as the arbitrator, the procedure to be followed shall be as far as possible the same as in the case of hearing before the Commission provided in Chapter II of these Regulations.
- (2) In case the Commission nominates an arbitrator or arbitrators to adjudicate and settle the disputes, such arbitrator or arbitrators may follow such procedure as they may consider appropriate, consistent with the principles of natural justice and fair opportunity to be given to the parties to arbitration and shall follow specific directions issued by the Commission.
- (3) The arbitrator or arbitrators, as the case may be shall, after hearing the parties pass an award giving reasons for the decision on all issues arising for adjudication and forward the award with relevant documents to the Commission within such time as the Commission may direct.
- (4) Pursuant to receipt of award, the Commission shall issue notice to the parties concerned giving opportunity to file objection to the award and rejoinder to such objection if any, within the time specified by the Commission.
- (5) The award made by the Commission or the arbitrators, as the case may be, shall be an award under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

29. Cost of arbitration and proceedings:

- (1) The cost of the arbitration and proceedings before the Commission shall be borne by such parties and in such sums as the Commission may direct.

Chapter- IV*Investigation, Inquiry, Collection of Information, etc.

- (1) The Commission may make such order or orders as it thinks fit for collection of information, inquiry, investigation, entry, search, and seizure and without prejudice to the generality of its powers in regard to the following:
  - (a) The Commission may, at any time, specially authorize the Secretary or any one or more Officers or Consultants or any other person as the Commission considers appropriate (hereinafter referred to as "Investigating Authority") to study, investigate or to inspect any matter within the purview of the Commission under the Act.
Provided that the Investigating Authority may, wherever necessary, employ any auditor or any other person for the purpose of assisting him in any investigation or inspection.
  - (b) The Commission may for the above purpose give such other directions as it may deem fit and specify the time within which the report is to be submitted or information furnished.

- (c) In exercise of powers conferred on it by section 128 of the Act, the Commission may, on being satisfied that a licensee or a generating company has failed to comply with any of the conditions of the license or the provisions of the Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder, at any time, by order in writing, direct an Investigating Authority to investigate the affairs of the licensee or generating company and report to the Commission. For this the Commission may direct the minimum information to be maintained by the licensees and generating companies in their books and also direct the manner in which such information shall be maintained and the checks and verifications to be adopted.
  - (d) The Commission may issue or authorize the Secretary or any Officer to issue directions to any person to produce before it and allow to be examined and kept by an Officer of the Commission specified in this behalf the books, accounts, registers, other documents, etc or to furnish information to the designated officer.
  - (e) The Commission may issue such directions for the purpose of collecting any information, particulars or documents which the Commission consider necessary in connection with the discharge of its functions under the Act.
  - (f) If any such report or information obtained appears to the Commission to be insufficient or inadequate, the Commission or the Investigating Authority may give directions for further inquiry, report and furnishing of information.
  - (g) The Commission may direct such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters, be attended to which may be considered relevant in connection with the above.
- (2) The Commission may, after giving reasonable notice to the licensee or the generating company, as the case may be, publish the report submitted by the Investigating Authority or such portion as may appear to it to be necessary.
  - (3) The Commission may, at any time, take the assistance of any institution, consultants, experts and such other technical and professional persons, as it may consider necessary, and ask them to study, investigate, inquire into any matter or issue and submit report or reports or furnish any information. The Commission may determine the terms and conditions for engagement of such professionals.
  - (4) If the report or information obtained in terms of the above Clauses or any part thereof is proposed to be relied upon by the Commission for forming its opinion or view in any proceedings, the parties to the proceedings shall be given a reasonable opportunity for filing objections and making submissions on the report or information. The Commission may order the following in writing:-
    - (a) require the licensee or the generating company to take such action in respect of any matter arising out of the report as the Commission may think fit; or

- (b) cancel the license; or
  - (c) direct the generating company to cease to carry on the business of generation of electricity.
- (5) All expenses of, and incidental to, any investigation made shall be defrayed by the licensee or generating company, as the case may be, and shall have priority over that debts due from the licensee or the generating company and shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

Chapter- V

Miscellaneous

30. Advisory Committee

- (1) The Commission in accordance with Section 87 of the Act may establish from such date as it may specify by notification a Committee known as the State Advisory Committee.
- (2) The Advisory Committee envisaged under the Act shall consist of such number of members not exceeding 21 representing the various interests as referred to in the Act, as may be decided by the Commission.

31. Review of the decisions, directions, and orders

- (1) The Commission may on its own motion, or on the application of any of the person or parties concerned, within 60 days of the making of any decision, direction or order, review such decision, directions or orders and pass such appropriate orders as the Commission thinks fit.

Provided that the Commission may, if it is satisfied, that the petitioner was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the review petition within the said period, allow it to be filed within a further period not exceeding 30 days, subject to such terms and conditions which commission may consider appropriate.

- (2) An application for such review shall be filed in the same manner as a petition under Chapter II of these Regulations.
- (3) The application shall be accompanied by such fee, if any, as may be laid down by the Commission.

32. Continuance of proceedings after death, etc.

- (1) Where in any proceeding any of the parties to the proceedings dies or is adjudicated as an insolvent or in the case of a company, is under liquidation or being wound up, the proceedings shall continue with the successors-in-interest, the executor, administrator, receiver, liquidator or other legal representative of the party concerned, as the case may be.
- (2) The Commission may, for reasons to be recorded, treat the proceedings as abated in case the Commission so directs and dispense with the need to bring the successors-in-interest, etc. on the record.
- (3) In case any person wishes to bring on record the successors-in-interest, etc, the application for the purpose shall be filed within 90 days from the event requiring the successors-in-interest to come on record.

Provided that the Commission may, if it is satisfied that there is sufficient cause for not filing the application within the time allowed condone the delay subject to such terms and conditions, as the Commission may consider appropriate.

- (4) If the person fails to bring on record the successors-in-interest within the time allowed under sub-clause (3) above and in the event the application for condoning the delay in bringing on record the successor-in-interest is not condoned under the proviso to sub-clause (3) the proceedings against the deceased person shall abate,

33. Proceedings to be open to public

- (1) The proceeding before the Commission shall be open to the public provided that the admission to the room of hearing shall be subject to availability of sitting accommodation. The Commission may, if it thinks fit, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, order at any stage of the proceedings of any particular case that the public generally or any particular person or group of persons shall not have access to or be or remain in the room or building used by the Commission for the purpose of conduct of the proceeding.
- (2) If any party or person in proceedings before the Commission intentionally insults the Chairman or any Member or misbehaves or deliberately cause interruption of such proceedings and/or disobeys order or direction of the Commission, such party or person, in accordance with the Section 228 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to Rs.1,000/- or with both.
- (3) Who ever intentionally offers any insult or causes any interruption in the presence of the Commission, the Commission in terms of Section 345 of Criminal Procedure Code may cause the offender to be detained in custody and may at any time before the close of the business day of the Commission's office on the same day, take cognizance of the offence and after giving the offender a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why he should not be punished under this section, sentence the offender to fine not exceeding Rs.200/- and in default of payment of fine, simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month unless such fine be sooner paid.
- (4) If the Commission in any case as referred to in the above Clause considers that a person accused of any of the offences referred to thereunder and committed in its view or presence should be imprisoned otherwise than in default of payment of fine or with a fine exceeding Rs.200/- should be imposed on him may forward the case to a Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the same and may require security be given for the appearance of such person before such Magistrate or if sufficient security is not given, shall forward such person in custody to such Magistrate.

34. Publication of Petition

- (1) Where any Petition is required to be published under the Act or these Regulations or as per the directions of the Commission, it shall, unless the Commission otherwise orders or the Act or Regulations otherwise provide, be published not less than 7 days before the date fixed for hearing.

- (2) Except or otherwise provided, such publication shall give a heading describing the subject matter in brief.
- (3) Such publication to be published shall be approved by the Officer of the Commission designated for the purpose.

35. Inspection of Commission's records and confidentiality

- (1) Records of every proceeding, information, documents etc. which are produced before the Commission, its officers, representatives or consultants except those parts of it which for reasons specified by the Commission are declared by the Commission to be confidential or privileged or otherwise not to be disclosed to any person, shall be open to inspection by all the parties to the proceedings subject to such party complying with such terms as the Commission may direct from time to time including terms in regard to time, place, and manner of inspection and payment of such fees as the Commission may specify.
- (2) Any person shall be entitled to obtain certified copies of the orders, documents and papers from the Commission subject to payment of such fee and compliance with such other terms as the Commission may direct.

36. Issue of orders and directions

Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Regulations, the Commission may, from time to time, issue orders and directions in regard to the implementation of the Regulations and procedure to be followed and various matters which the Commission has been empowered by these Regulations to specify or direct.

37. Saving of inherent power of the Commission

- (1) Nothing in these Regulations shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the Commission to make such orders as may be necessary for ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Commission.
- (2) Nothing in these Regulations shall bar the Commission from adopting in conformity with the provisions of the Act, a procedure, which is at variance with any of the provisions of these Regulations, if the Commission, in view of the special circumstances of a matter or class of matters and for reasons to be recorded in writing, deems it necessary or expedient for dealing with such a matter or class of matters.
- (3) Nothing in these Regulations shall, expressly or impliedly, bar the Commission to deal with any matter or exercise any power under the Act for which no Regulations have been framed, and the Commission may deal with such matters, powers and functions in a manner it thinks fit.

38. General Power to amend

The Commission may, at any time and on such terms as to costs or otherwise, as it may think fit, rectify any defect or error in any proceeding before it, and all acts shall be done for the purpose of determining the real question or issue arising in the Proceedings.

39. Power to remove difficulties

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of these Regulations, the Commission may, by general or special order, do anything not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulties.

40. Extension or abridgement of time prescribed

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the time prescribed by these Regulations or by order of the Commission for doing any act may be extended (whether it has already expired or not) or abridged for sufficient reason by order of the Commission.

41. Effect of non-compliance

Failure to comply with any requirement of these Regulations shall not invalidate any proceeding merely by reason of such failure unless the Commission is of the view that such failure has resulted in miscarriage of justice.

42. Costs

- (1) Subject to such conditions and limitation as may be directed by the Commission, the cost of, and incidental to, all proceedings shall be awarded at the discretion of the Commission and the Commission shall have full power to determine by whom or out of what funds and to what extent such costs are to be paid and give all necessary directions for the aforesaid purposes.
- (2) The costs shall be paid within 30 days from the date of the order or within such time as the Commission may, by order, direct. The order of the Commission awarding costs shall be executed in the same manner as the decree/order of a Civil Court.

43. Enforcement of orders passed by the Commission

The Secretary shall ensure enforcement and compliance of the orders passed by the Commission, by the persons concerned in accordance with the provisions of the Act and Regulations and if necessary, may seek the orders of the Commission for directions.

44. Delegation

The Commission may, by general or special order in writing, delegate to any Member, Secretary, Officer of the Commission or any other person subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, such of its powers and powers and functions under the Act (except the powers to adjudicate disputes under the Act and the powers to make regulations under the Act) as it may deem necessary.

45. Regulations to be in addition to and not in derogation of other laws

These Regulations are in addition to and not in derogation of any provision laid under the Act, rules or regulations framed thereunder or under any other laws.
